

Please take your time to read the Rider Entry Agreement

The following are the terms and conditions that you accept by signing up to The Mongol Derby 2018.

The Mongol Derby is genuinely dangerous, so in today's legal climate we need an agreement that means you take responsibility for yourself and the risks that you will face when you participate in this adventure.

The agreement also covers things like media rights which we try to use to wangle a bit of extra cash to make the events even better. They are only intended to secure the commercial side of things so you still take on your own projects for entertainment or for publicising your own team in newspapers and things. In fact, we love seeing the Mongol Derby on the telly so if you have a commercial project in mind drop us a line and we will try to work with you to make it happen.

So sit back, make a cup of tea and read the following carefully. Be sure exactly what it is you're about to sign up to, and if you are happy, then tick to confirm you agree to the following terms and conditions, and understand the agreement you are entering into upon formally signing up, and then you can get cracking with the actual adventure!

If you have any questions concerning any element of this agreement, then please get in touch with Adventurists HQ by telephoning +44 (0)117 963 5513 or e-mailing us at mongolderby@theadventurists.com.

Additionally, the Rider is fully aware and acknowledges that all horse sports and accordingly participation in the Event involve serious risk of harm, including, but not limited to, risks of accident, serious bodily injury, including death, broken bones, head injuries, trauma, pain, fatigue, dehydration and suffering and property damage. The Rider additionally acknowledges and accepts full responsibility for checking and maintaining all equipment in their possession for the duration of the Event to ensure its safe use (including by way of example, the saddle, bridle, girth, buckles and riding hat).

12.6 The Rider undertakes and agrees that they will irrevocably indemnify and hold the Company harmless from and against all costs and expenses (including reasonable legal costs), actions, proceedings, claims, demands and damage arising from a breach of the Rider's representations, warranties or undertakings contained herein or arising from the acts or omissions of the Rider, respective officers, employers, agents or sub-contractors.

13. Power to make rules and other provisions

13.1 The parties recognise that given the nature of the Event, issues may arise in relation to the Event that were not foreseen and therefore are not specifically addressed in the Terms of Entry or the Event Rules or that would have an unintended result if made subject to the Terms of Entry and the Event Rules without modification. The parties further recognise that it is in the best interests of the Event, and of all the participants in the Event, that such issues be addressed as quickly and effectively as possible.

13.2 In consequence of the recognition set out in clause 13.1, the Rider agrees that the Company shall have the right, exercisable unilaterally from time to time before and/or during the Event Period:

of the value of the Commercial Rights.

13.3 During the Event itself, the Company may delegate the right conferred by clause 13.1 above to one or more designees including the Event Director, any Official or any other person appointed by the Company.

13.4 The Rider agrees that any amended and supplemental Terms of Entry or Event Rules and any directions made pursuant to this clause 13 shall become binding upon the Rider immediately upon communication to them and shall be deemed to be included in the Terms of Entry or the Event Rules (as applicable) for the purposes of this Agreement.

13.5 Decisions made pursuant to this clause to amend or supplement the Terms of Entry or Event Rules or to issue directions shall be final. Any such decisions or directions shall be posted on the Event website and communicated to the Rider via email. In the event that the Company make a decision/provide a direction under this clause whilst the Event is in progress, it shall use all reasonable endeavours to communicate this to the Rider as soon as practicable following the issue of the decision/direction. - The Rider must be fully aware of the short-term and potentially long-term risks to his/her health/life of partaking in the Mongol Derby.
- The Rider must be aware that the wilderness itself presents dangers on top of those inherent to partaking in extreme sports such as horse racing, that may cause serious injury or death.
- The Rider must be aware that there are no medical facilities on the steppe, that the nearest hospital or medical facility may be hours from them should they suffer any injury and that there is a severe lack of availability of helicopters in Mongolia, meaning helicopter assistance in the case of an accident may not be available. He/she should also be aware that, should specialist care be required in the event of an accident during the Event, the medical facilities in Mongolia may not be sufficient, and a medevac to a medical centre elsewhere may be required.
- The Rider must attain the correct level of death, accident and health insurance, satisfactory evidence of which they must present to the Event Directors at least two weeks prior to the start of the pre-race training session.
- The rider must complete the Pre-Race Medical Questionnaire for the attention of our medical partners, Iquarus Ltd, by 1st July 2018, without prejudice to clause 6.1.4.
- The Rider acknowledges the risk they undertake when entering the Mongol Derby 2018 and has read and understood clause 12 (12.1-12.7) of the Rider Agreement which deals with the acknowledgement of risk.
- The Rider accepts that safety is the paramount consideration for the Mongol Derby 2018, which is firstly an adventure and secondarily a race. The safety of the Rider, the Rider's horse and the other competitors must take priority over any competitive element to the Mongol Derby.
- In recognition of the safety elements of this event and as part of the compulsory safety precautions which Riders must adhere to, each Rider will be provided with by the Company and should carry with them at all times the satellite tracking device which has an in-built emergency activation beacon. This should only be used if the Rider or horse's health or life is at severe risk and therefore for medical or veterinary emergencies.

Refundable Deposit for transport from the racecourse Each rider will need to lodge a refundable deposit against the cost of optional transport services from the racecourse to Ulaanbaatar arranged by the Company on behalf of the Rider. The refundable amount of £300 is payable by debit or credit card using our online payment provider by 1st August 2018.

This refundable deposit will be used if you request transport to be organised on your behalf should you require it due to a non-emergency medical situation, injury or other need to travel from the racecourse to Ulaanbaatar before the scheduled bus service for riders at the end of the race period.

The Company will endeavour to facilitate the most appropriate and cost effective transport option available but the rider acknowledges that the Company will not be responsible or liable for the transport services delivered or accept any claim for loss, damage, injury or death related to the transport services provided by the third party and accepted by the Rider.

The Company agrees to make arrangements for this transport service to facilitate a cost effective solution in a remote environment where other options may be slow or vastly more expensive. There is no obligation to accept the transport options offered in this situation.

The direct cost of the transport service will be deducted from the deposit if used by the Rider. Foreign exchange rates on the day the transport is arranged will be used to convert the cost in the locally required currency to calculate any deduction from the refundable deposit paid in British sterling (GBP). If no transport services are required the full amount will be refunded to the card used to lodge the deposit and the refund processed in the week following the end of the race.

The Rider's name, contact details and address will be made available to Cool Earth and fundraising packs and information will be sent in the post and by email. If the Rider does NOT want to receive communications from the official charity you can opt out of this process by emailing adventurists@coolearth.org

Emergencies The Rider should only use the emergency beacon in the case of a medical or veterinary emergency. Instructions on how to use the emergency beacon will be available to the Rider in the Event Handbook and during the pre-race training session.

There will be a medical emergency support provided by Iquarus Ltd during the Mongol Derby 2018, consisting of qualified expedition medics. The medical team will respond as fast as possible given the terrain and nature of the Mongol Derby 2018.
