

Please take your time to read the Entry Agreement

The following are the terms and conditions that you accept by signing up to The Mongol Rally 2021.

The Mongol Rally is genuinely dangerous, so in today's legal climate we need an agreement that means you take responsibility for yourself and the risks that you will face when you participate in this adventure.

The agreement also covers things like media rights which we try to use to wangle a bit of extra cash to make the events even better. They are only intended to secure the commercial side of things so you still take on your own projects for entertainment or for publicising your own team in newspapers and things. In fact, we love seeing the Mongol Rally on the telly so if you have a commercial project in mind drop us a line and we will try to work with you to make it happen.

So sit back, make a cup of tea and read the following carefully. Be sure exactly what it is you're about to sign up to, and if you are happy, then tick to confirm you agree to the following terms and conditions, and understand the agreement you are entering into upon formally signing up, and then you can get cracking with the actual adventure.

If you have any questions about any element of this agreement, then please get in touch with Adventurists HQ by phoning +44 (0)117 422 3400 or e-mailing us at mongolrally@theadventurists.com.

The refund will be issued in GBP (British sterling pounds) and the Company will not be responsible for reimbursing monies charged by third parties, such as banks, at the point of transfer or any variation as a result of currency conversions.

In the event that: (a) the Team does not present their vehicle or motorbike(s) (as the case may be) for collection, together with all vehicle registration documentation, at the Designated Finishing Point; (b) provide evidence demonstrating the location of the vehicle and proof of legal disposal if appropriate or (c) any actions of the team or any team member cause the Company to incur any costs, the vehicle deposit(s) will not be refunded.

The deposit may also be withheld at our discretion if a team is not able to prove that their vehicle has departed Russia and been dealt with in a legal manner. Please note that all documentation given to the Team by the Russian border authorities in relation to the entry of their vehicle(s) into Russia must be presented with the vehicle at the Designated Finishing Point in order for the vehicle deposit for that vehicle to be repaid and the necessary procedures to be followed depending on your particular situation.

Should the Team abandon its vehicle in a country other than Russia and there are charges that the Company incurs, as a result of the Team's actions, the Company will pass them on to the Team and may deduct them from the Team's vehicle deposit. The method of payment of the vehicle deposit will be notified to all Teams prior to the commencement of the Event Period, both by e-mail and in the Team Handbook online.

In the event that any costs incurred by the Company arising from the actions of the Team or any Team member(s) are greater than the amount of the vehicle deposit paid by that team, the Company will pursue the Team for the relevant outstanding amount in accordance with the Terms of Entry without prejudice to any other rights the Company may have under the Terms of Entry or otherwise. For the avoidance of doubt, each member of the Team shall jointly and severally irrevocably indemnify the Company from any liability in respect of all costs incurred from that Team's non-compliance with this condition.

Transferring your refundable vehicle deposit to payment for shipping services:

At the time of delivering your vehicle to the Designated Finishing Point, each team will declare if they want to take up the shipping services offered by the shipping company. The team will be asked to confirm this in writing at the point of delivery and sign any necessary waivers, agreements or documents required by the shipping services provider.

The team will be required to declare if they intend to pick up their vehicle once it arrives at its destination or if they would like the vehicle dealt with by a scrapping company or collect the vehicle themselves. Arrangements will be made direct with either the suggested storage company or any other storage arrangements as seen fit by the team.

In both instances, the team must be willing to grant The Adventurists or the shipping services provider all powers and permissions as necessary to enable the shipping services or be willing to provide documentation requested by The Adventurists, the shipping services provider or other third parties officially engaged in the vehicle shipping process.

Teams must assess the shipping services provided and will enter into an agreement with that provider covering the terms and conditions of the service offered.

Once the team has confirmed they would like to transfer their vehicle deposit into a payment for the shipping services on offer no refunds will be available.

Registration of Vehicles

The Team must register the vehicle through the official Event website no later than six weeks before the start of the Event. On the same date, the Team must inform the company what they intend to do with the vehicle after they have reached the designated finishing point, whether that be exporting the vehicle or making their own arrangements.

The Team must present its vehicle for final registration at the Designated Starting Point on the first day of the Event Period at the times specified in "The Agreement" or otherwise by the Company, or at a second Event registration point as agreed with the Company.

For registration the Team must present to the Company evidence of: a valid ownership document belonging to one member of the Team; the road worthiness of the vehicle (MOT certificate or non-UK equivalent); all necessary vehicle taxation; valid insurance documents which include cover for all team members and proof of payment of the vehicle deposit. Failure to present the vehicle for registration according to these conditions may lead to the Team being removed from the Event by the Company.

Temporarily Importing the Vehicle into Russia

The team agrees to abide by the Terms of Entry and the Event Rules as well as any other rules or regulations set down by the Company, the Russian Authorities and Russian Customs which apply to the temporary importation of the Team's vehicle(s) to Russia. Such rules and regulations will be notified by the Company to the Teams as soon as possible.

The Team accepts that, due to the nature of the Event, and the difficult procedures associated with the importation of vehicles temporarily into Russia, that the Russian Authorities and Customs may make decisions or last-minute amendments to any previous arrangements made with the Company that may cause delays or difficulties for the Team at the Russian border. The Team agrees that they will endeavour to contact the Event Director(s) as soon as possible to inform them of their presence at the border, should any such delay or difficulty occur, and that they will carry out any instruction given to them by the Event Director(s) concerning how they should deal with their vehicle in such a scenario.

The Team accepts that upon crossing the Russian border that it may not abandon, sell or otherwise dispose of its vehicle at any point inside Russia, other than those stipulated by the Russian Authorities and the Company together, and of which teams will be notified before arrival at the Russian border.

The Team agrees to deliver the vehicle to the Designated Finishing Point by 13th September 2021 (based on the local time at the Designated Finish Point) unless other arrangements have been made and agreed with the Company, for example, the team driving the vehicle out of Russia. The Team agrees to hand over the vehicle, full ownership of and all documents for the vehicle, including any given to it by Russian customs upon crossing into Russian territory to the designated authority immediately upon arrival at the Designated Finishing Point plus any other relevant documentation needed. Failure to do this will result in the Team losing its vehicle deposit, without prejudice to any other rights the Company may have.

Taking the vehicle home

Should the Team wish to depart from Russia with their vehicle or to export their vehicle back out of Russia themselves, they must notify the Company in writing no later than six weeks before the launch. Having done so, the Team may then under no circumstances leave the vehicle in Russia or they will forfeit their vehicle deposit and will be liable to pay the full import duty to Russian Customs.

Leaving your vehicle in other countries

The Team agrees to abide by the rules of the country they are in if and when they must leave their vehicle due to the vehicle breaking down and/or the Team electing to retire from the Event. Any costs incurred by the Company that arise from the Team leaving the car improperly or illegally will be deducted from the vehicle deposit, or charged to the Team should the amount incurred exceed the vehicle deposit amount. For the avoidance of doubt, each member of the Team shall jointly and severally irrevocably indemnify the Company from any liability in respect of all costs incurred from that Team's non-compliance with this condition.

Charity Fundraising

Each team must use their best endeavours to raise a minimum of £500 (GB Sterling) which must be donated to the official event charity Cool Earth. Any other donations must be made to legitimate, registered charitable organisations approved by the event organisers. This figure is in addition to any gift aid or other tax reclaim schemes.

The team members name and contact details will be made available to the official charity Cool Earth if the team member has opted in to give this permission during the registration process.

All donations must be paid to the charities no later than 4 weeks after the event period. Further details of this process are contained in the team information packs provided to each team by the Company.

If for any reason a donation cannot be made on the designated fundraising website the amounts donated and the method must be declared to the organisers and proof of payment given if requested.

For information regarding fundraising platforms or to inform the Adventurists about alternative charities it wishes to raise funds for, the Team should contact: mongolrally@theadventurists.com

Team Fundraising Rights

The Team is entitled to collect separate non-charitable donations and sponsorship to cover all reasonable costs of taking part in the Event and shall be permitted to offer low-level sponsorship and branding rights to any of its sponsors (such as branding on Team specific clothing, the Team vehicle etc) subject always to the rights reserved by the Company pursuant to the Terms of Entry (including, without limit, clause 8 (Commercial Rights) and clause 9 (Media Rights)). At the Company's request, the Team may be required to provide a list of all proposed Team sponsorship at least 21 days prior to the Event Period for the Company's approval. Upon notice from the Company the Team shall remove the logo(s) or brand(s) of any sponsor(s) from the Team vehicle or any other Team items, or cease to grant any other right(s) to its sponsor(s) immediately, where the Company deems such sponsorship to conflict with any sponsorship or branding arrangements made between the Company and a Commercial Partners and/or any other Event sponsor(s).

Should the Team decide to cover its adventure expenses it must make it abundantly clear to all donors and/or sponsors how any donations and/or sponsorship are being used. The team agrees to follow the guidelines as laid out by the Institute of Fundraising - <http://www.institute-of-fundraising.org.uk> and acknowledges that, without prejudice to any other provisions of the Terms of Entry, the Terms of Entry and the Event Rules, it shall remain liable for any breach of any applicable law, regulation or law in respect of the fundraising activity it carries out.

Entry Fee Refund Schedule upon Withdrawal from the Event

Paying by instalments? This is important: If you pay the entry fee by instalments the refund amounts below are not a percentage of what you've paid until the date you withdraw. The percentages showing what you can reclaim refer to the full entry fee amount. For example if you are due 75% back that means we have to keep the other 25% of the full price entry fee. If you have paid less than 25% of the full entry fee in instalments at the point you withdraw you won't be due a refund.

Full refund:

- More than one year until launch day
- Within 28 days of paying for your place, even if it's less than a year until launch date

75% refund:

Less than one year and more than 6 calendar months before the launch date of the adventure.

50% Refund:

Less than 6 calendar months and up to 3 calendar months before the launch date of the adventure.

5% Refund:

Less than 3 calendar months and up to 1 calendar month before the launch date of the adventure.

No refund due:

Less than 1 calendar month before the launch date of the adventure you are not entitled to a refund.

Changes made by the Company to the event schedule or postponement of the event do not result in a change, extension or alteration of the refund policy. The launch day is the date in the event schedule on the day the entry fee is paid.

If no entry fee is paid, including but not limited to a Team taking up a free transfer to this or an alternative or future event, this refund policy is not applicable. The refund policy in this case is governed by the agreement entered into on the date an entry fee was paid.

Request and refund - send an email The person who signed up initially and paid the entry fee will need to send an email confirming your team are formally withdrawing from the adventure. Please use the same email address registered to the team.

Getting the money back We will send the money back to the account linked to the card you paid it with. If your card has expired the payment will still be transferred to your account by your bank. If there are any problems you'll be responsible for bullying your bank to get the money to your account. If the account itself is closed you need to let us know when you request the refund. All fees and charges for issuing refunds are charged to the recipient and if necessary will be deducted from the refund amount due.

Transfers The team has no automatic entitlement or right to transfer to an alternative or future event offered by the Company. At the sole discretion of the Company and in exceptional circumstances a transfer may be offered and confirmed in writing by email. The team has no automatic entitlement to a partial refund if the future or alternative event has a lower entry fee. The team will be required to pay a supplemental charge if the alternative or future event has a higher entry fee.

Getting Help on the Road

The Team accepts that the Mongol Rally is an unsupported adventure.

The Team accepts that the Company will not offer any assistance or advice to teams during the Team's journey from the Designated Starting Point to the Designated Finishing Point.

Without prejudice to any provision of the Terms of Entry, the Team shall be solely responsible for: planning its travel route from the Designated Starting Point to the Designated Finishing Point; making all necessary preparations; taking all the safety precautions it feels necessary; obtaining all necessary insurance, clearances, visas and authorizations to complete their chosen travel route. The team and each of its members, in line with clause 12.7 of the Terms of Entry above, will be responsible also for the obtaining of all necessary travel insurance to an adequate level in consideration of the high-risk nature of the Event.

Externally Hosted Team Websites

Should the Team choose to use an externally hosted website in addition to the Team website provided by the Company on the official Event website at mongolrally.com, they must ensure that such website complies with the Terms of Entry and the Event Rules in all respects. Additionally, the Team must post the Event Mark in a prominent and visible place at the top of the home page of their team website. The appropriate file will be available to the teams to download from the 'Teams' handbook available at mongolrally.com and must be posted using the same dimensions (150 pixels high and 150 pixels wide) graphics and pantones as the original file provided.

Consular requests

Some Consuls have requested that we draw the Team Members' attention to what their staff can and cannot do for a Team on the Mongol Rally.

Please refer to the page relevant to your nationality in the Mongol Rally Online Adventure Handbook for information about what your consulate is able to do for you when you are abroad. Please note that the Company provides no warranty whatsoever as to the accuracy of the information displayed in the Online Adventure Handbook and accepts no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage caused as a consequence of the Team's reliance on the information provided by their consulate.

COVID-19 Policy

Cancellation

In the case that we have to cancel the event you have signed up to because of an outbreak of COVID-19 in the event destination country we will offer you:

- An adventure credit to the sum of your entry fee (minus the admin fee amount of £100) and 10% off all future adventures booked within 2 years

OR

- A full refund for the entry-fee amount you have paid (minus the admin fee amount of £100).

Postponement

In the case that we postpone the event due to an outbreak of COVID-19 in the event destination country to a time that we consider safe to reschedule to, we will offer you a free transfer to the new dates of the rescheduled event (no admin fee would be applied). If the new event dates are unsuitable for you, we will offer you:

- An adventure credit to the sum of your entry fee (minus the admin fee amount of £100) and 10% off all future adventures booked within 2 years.

OR

- A full refund for the entry-fee amount you have paid (minus the admin fee amount of £100).

Retrospective refund request at point of event cancellation or postponement

If you have pulled out of the event and are issued a refund based on our normal refund policy, and the event is later cancelled or postponed due to an outbreak of COVID-19, you will not be entitled to come back at the point of event cancellation or postponement for a full refund as you will already have ended your contract with us.

Disinclination to travel

We won't refund your entry fee if you have a disinclination to travel due to a perceived threat of COVID-19 and the event is going ahead.

If you are infected with COVID-19

If you need to withdraw from the event because you have contracted COVID-19, a refund will be given at the sole discretion of the company and on presentation of a medical certificate proving infection.

Immunity Certificates or other types of COVID-19 control documents

You may be required to obtain an immunity certificate or some other kind of documentation to prove that you are not actively infected with COVID-19. If you are unable to travel because you do not have the correct documents relating to COVID-19, we will be unable to refund you.

Quarantine, health and security regulations

You may be expected to quarantine for a period of time on arrival in the event destination country. You may also be expected to do the same in your country of residence when returning from your trip. You may need to take this into consideration when planning your schedule to take part in the event. We will not issue a full refund to you if you sign up with the understanding that this, amongst other travel regulations, is a possibility, and then later decide you do not wish to comply with these regulations and so want to withdraw. These regulations are likely to become a part of post-COVID-19 travel for a little while, so please take them into consideration.

Regional lockdowns

If your country of residency's government prevents all travel or your residency/nationality is banned from entry into the event destination country, you can take an adventure credit and receive a 10% discount off all future adventures booked within 2 years. You will not be entitled to a refund of your entry fee as we may not have cancelled or postponed the event in this case. (Not all nationalities and residencies will be under the same travel restrictions at the same time)

Regional entry restrictions

If the country in which the event is taking place introduces regional lockdown zones, we will move the location of the event if we can. If we can't do this because the lockdown zones are so restrictive we are unable to deliver a satisfactory event for you, we may postpone the event and the above rules will apply.

Adventure Credit

Adventure credit lasts 24 months from the date it is issued. You have to use the credit within that time period - that means you have 2 years to book onto your next adventure using your adventure credit.

Adventure Transfer

You can only use the transfer once unless an outbreak of COVID-19 also affects the next adventure you have transferred to.

COVID-19 refund entitlement

If you agree to an adventure transfer or to postponed dates, you are no longer entitled to a refund of your entry fee.

Things might change

We don't have a crystal ball we can peer in to to tell you what might happen next. However, what we do know is that things are changing fast, and we will update our policies as they change where relevant.
