

Please take your time to read the Rider Entry Agreement

The Monkey Run is genuinely dangerous, so in today's legal climate we need an agreement that means you take responsibility for yourself and the risks that you will face when you participate in this adventure.

The agreement also covers things like media rights which we try to use to wangle a bit of extra cash to make the events even better. They are only intended to secure the commercial side of things and we won't get in the way of you making films for your own entertainment or for publicising your own adventure in newspapers and things. In fact, we love seeing our events on the telly so if you have a commercial project in mind drop us a line and we will try to work with you to make it happen.

So sit back, make a cup of tea and read the following carefully. Be sure exactly what it is you're about to sign up to, and if you are happy, then tick to confirm you agree to the following terms and conditions, and understand the agreement you are entering into, then you can get cracking with the actual adventure.

If you have any questions concerning any element of this agreement, then please get in touch with Adventurists HQ by telephoning +44 (0)117 963 5513 or e-mailing us at monkeyrun@theadventurists.com.

The Rider agrees to follow the guidelines as laid out by the Institute of Fundraising - www.institute-of-fundraising.org.uk - and acknowledges that, without prejudice to any other provisions of the Rider Entry Agreement, the Terms of Entry and the Event Rules, it shall remain liable for any breach of any Relevant Law applicable to the fundraising activity it carries out.

Refund Policy Paying by instalments? This is important: If you pay the entry fee by instalments the refund amounts below are not a percentage of what you've paid until the date you withdraw. The percentages showing what you can reclaim refer to the full entry fee amount. For example if you are due 75% back that means we have to keep the other 25% of the full price entry fee. If you have paid less than 25% of the full entry fee in instalments at the point you withdraw you won't be due a refund.

Full refund:

- More than one year until launch day
- Within 28 days of paying for your place, even if it's less than a year until launch date

75% refund:

Less than one year and more than 6 calendar months before the launch date of the adventure.

50% Refund:

Less than 6 calendar months and up to 3 calendar months before the launch date of the adventure.

5% Refund:

Less than 3 calendar months and up to 1 calendar month before the launch date of the adventure.

No refund due:

Less than 1 calendar month before the launch date of the adventure you are not entitled to a refund.

Request and refund - send an email The person who signed up initially and paid the entry fee will need to send an email confirming your team are formally withdrawing from the adventure. Please use the same email address registered to the team.

Getting the money back We will send the money back to the account linked to the card you paid it with. If your card has expired the payment will still be transferred to your account by your bank. If there are any problems you'll be responsible for bullying your bank to get the money to your account. If the account itself is closed you need to let us know when you request the refund. All fees and charges for issuing refunds are charged to the recipient and if necessary will be deducted from the refund amount due.

Vehicle deposit

A fully refundable vehicle deposit of £300 is payable to the League of Adventurists International, a minimum of 28 days before the start of the event (this will be used to repair any major damage that is left unfixed at the end of the adventure or to transport the vehicle to the finish point should the Rider not do so themselves). Please note that bank charges made by the banks involved with the transfers for the payment provider used to facilitate holding this deposit will be the responsibility of the Riders.
