

Please take your time to read the Entry Agreement

The following are the terms and conditions that you accept by signing up to The Rickshaw Run Sri Lanka January 2025.

The Rickshaw Run is genuinely dangerous, so in today's legal climate we need an agreement that means you take responsibility for yourself and the risks that you will face when you participate in this adventure.

The agreement also covers things like media rights which we try to use to wangle a bit of extra cash to make the events even better. They are only intended to secure the commercial side of things so you still take on your own projects for entertainment or for publicising your own team in newspapers and things. In fact, we love seeing the Rickshaw Run on the telly so if you have a commercial project in mind drop us a line and we will try to work with you to make it happen.

So sit back, make a cup of tea and read the following carefully. Be sure exactly what it is you're about to sign up to, and if you are happy, then tick to confirm you agree to the following terms and conditions, and understand the agreement you are entering into upon formally signing up, and then you can get cracking with the actual adventure.

If you have any questions concerning any element of this agreement, then please get in touch with Adventurists HQ by telephoning +44 (0)117 4223400 or e-mailing us at hq@theadventurists.com.

Hire Costs

In the case that the Team does not deliver the rickshaw to the Designated Finish Point by 14:00 on 9th January 2025 (unless authorised by the Event Director), the team will be liable for the costs to retrieve the Vehicle and a daily additional hire fee of £100 per day. The costs for retrieving the vehicle and the additional daily hire fees will be deducted from the team's vehicle deposit.

Rickshaw Pimping

Teams may carry out Rickshaw Pimping (as defined in the Team Entry Agreement) to their Vehicle to the extent that their plans and specifications for the alterations to be made are authorised by the Event Director. Rickshaw Pimping must be carried out subject to the terms of the Rental Agreement. Teams must not carry out Rickshaw Pimping in such a way that may reduce the resale value of the Vehicle. The restriction includes, without limitation, alteration of the standard engine and design specifications of the Vehicle, removal of any passenger seats or fittings, fixtures, instruments or upholstery from the interior of the Vehicle.

Charity Fundraising

Each team must use their best endeavours to raise a minimum of £500 (GB Sterling) which must be donated to the official event charity Cool Earth.

The team members name and contact details will be made available to the official charity Cool Earth if the team member has opted in to give this permission during the registration process.

All donations must be paid to the charities no later than 4 weeks after the event period. Further details of this process are contained in the Team information packs provided to each Team by the Company.

If for any reason a donation cannot be made on the designated fundraising website the amounts donated and the method must be declared to the organisers and proof of payment given if requested.

For information regarding fundraising platforms or to inform the Adventurists about alternative charities it wishes to raise funds for, the Team should contact hq@theadventurists.com

Team Fundraising Rights

Teams may collect non-charitable donations and sponsorship to cover reasonable costs of taking part in the Event only and shall be permitted to offer low-level sponsorship branding rights to its sponsors (such as branding on the team's clothing, vehicle) subject always to the rights reserved by the Company pursuant to the Team Entry Agreement including, without limit, clause 8 (Commercial Rights) and clause 10 (Media Rights). A list of all proposed Team sponsorship must be notified by the Team to the Company at least 21 days prior to the Event Period for the Company's approval. For the avoidance of doubt, the Team shall remove the logo or brand of any sponsor from any team clothing, Vehicle or cease granting any other right to a Team sponsor immediately upon notice from the Company where the Company deems such Team sponsorship to be in conflict with the brands or sponsorship arrangements between the Company and the Commercial Partners and/or any other Event sponsors.

If Teams decide to cover their expenses they must make it very clear how any donations or sponsorship are being spent. The Team agrees to follow the guidelines as laid out by the Institute of Fundraising - www.institute-of-fundraising.org.uk - and acknowledges that, without prejudice to any other provisions of the Team Entry Agreement, the Terms of Entry and the Event Rules, it shall remain liable for any breach of any Relevant Law applicable to the fundraising activity it carries out.

Refund Policy

Paying by instalments? This is important:

If you pay the entry fee by instalments the refund amounts below are not a percentage of what you've paid until the date you withdraw. The percentages showing what you can reclaim refer to the full entry fee amount.

For example if you are due 75% back that means we have to keep the other 25% of the full price entry fee. If you have paid less than 25% of the full entry fee in instalments at the point you withdraw you will not be due a refund.

All refunds are subject to an admin fee of 2.6% of the full entry fee.

Full refund:

- More than one year until launch day
- Within 28 days of paying for your place, even if it is less than a year until launch date

75% refund:

Less than one year and more than 6 calendar months before the launch date of the adventure.

50% Refund:

Less than 6 calendar months and up to 3 calendar months before the launch date of the adventure.

5% Refund:

Less than 3 calendar months and up to 1 calendar month before the launch date of the adventure.

No refund due:

Less than 1 calendar month before the launch date of the adventure you are not entitled to a refund.

Changes made by the Company to the event schedule or postponement of the event do not result in a change, extension or alteration of the refund policy. The launch day is the date in the event schedule on the day the entry fee is paid.

If no entry fee is paid, including but not limited to a Team taking up a free transfer to this or an alternative or future event, this refund policy is not applicable. The refund policy in this case is governed by the agreement entered into on the date an entry fee was paid.

Request a refund - send an email

The person who signed up initially and paid the entry fee will need to send an email confirming your team are formally withdrawing from the adventure. Please use the same email address registered to the team.

Getting the money back

We will send the money back to the account linked to the card you paid it with. If your card has expired the payment will still be transferred to your account by your bank. If there are any problems you'll be responsible for bullying your bank to get the money to your account. If the account itself is closed you need to let us know when you request the refund.

All refunds are subject to an admin fee of 2.6% of the full entry fee.

If you request an alternative refund method (such as bank transfer) all charges and fees to carry out the transaction will be the responsibility of the customer, including fees charged by our banking providers. Depending on the recipient bank and country these fees may be higher than our standard admin fee.

Transfers

The team has no automatic entitlement or right to transfer to an alternative or future event offered by the Company. At the sole discretion of the Company and in exceptional circumstances a transfer may be offered and confirmed in writing by email.

The team has no automatic entitlement to a partial refund if the future or alternative event has a lower entry fee. The team will be required to pay a supplemental charge if the alternative or future event has a higher entry fee.

Rickshaw deposit

A fully refundable rickshaw deposit of £500 is payable to the League of Adventurists International, a minimum of 30 days before the start of the event (this will be used to repair any damage to the rickshaws that is left unfixed at the end of the run or to transport the rickshaw to the finish point should the Team not do so themselves).

Please note that bank charges made by the banks involved with the transfers for the payment provider used to facilitate holding this deposit will be the responsibility of the teams.

Important Event Information by Email

Important information about the Event will be sent to registered team members by email and it is the responsibility of the Team Members to register an appropriate email address and update this email address as needed to receive the Event updates by email. It is recommended that all teams add the following email addresses to their email contacts or safe sender list: hq@theadventurists.com.

Pre and Post Adventure Check-in

Teams are required to check in using the registration system as instructed 28 days before the start of the Event to confirm their participation and provide extra information. Teams who do not follow the check in procedure may be withdrawn from the Event. Teams are also required to check in using the registration system as instructed when their participation in the Event has ended. Any delays in following the check-in procedure at the end of the Event could result in a delay in the return of the refundable vehicle deposit.

Insurance

We accept no liability for any deficiencies in any insurance policy. It is your responsibility to ensure you have the correct insurance in place for your participation in the Rickshaw Run to cover the full duration of your travel including the cost of flights, lost or damaged baggage or any medical or associated costs incurred inside and outside the period of travel with the Rickshaw Run.

Getting help on the road

Teams must note that the Company will not offer any assistance or advice to Teams during the Team's journey from the Designated Starting Point to the Designated Finishing Point. Without prejudice to any provision of the Team Entry Agreement Teams shall be solely responsible for planning their travel route from the Designated Starting Point to the Designated Finishing Point and for making all necessary preparations and taking all necessary safety precautions and obtaining all necessary clearances, visas, authorisations to complete their chosen travel route.

Externally Hosted Team Websites

Should the Team choose to use an externally hosted website in addition to the Team website provided by the Company on the official Event website at rickshawrun.com, they must ensure that such website complies with the Terms of Entry and the Event Rules in all respects. Additionally, the Team must post the Event Mark in a prominent and visible place at the top of the home page of their team website. The appropriate file will be available to the teams to download from the "Teams" handbook available at rickshawrun.com and must be posted using the same dimensions (150 pixels high and 119 pixels wide) graphics and pantones as the original file provided.

Consular Requests

TEAMS MUST READ THE LIST BELOW. It is produced by the British Foreign Office who have specifically asked us to draw your attention to it after a number of Teams contacted them for help that they cannot give. Please note that the Company provides no warranty whatsoever as to the accuracy of the information played below and accepts no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage caused as a consequence of a Team's reliance on the information below.

Teams must be aware that British Embassies can in no way help teams or Team members should they break a law. They should not be contacted when a Team or any Team Members is in difficulty unless it is believed a Team or any Team Members are being treated illegally. To assist teams in determining what matters the British Foreign Office can and can't do, they have specifically asked the Company to draw your attention to the following list:

British consular staff cannot:

• Get you out of prison, prevent the local authorities from deporting you after your prison sentence, or interfere in criminal or civil court proceedings;

• Help you enter a country, for example, if you do not have a visa or your passport is not valid, as we cannot interfere in another country's immigration policy or procedures;

• Give you legal advice, investigate crimes or carry out searches for missing people, although we can give you details of people who may be able to help you in these cases, such as English-speaking lawyers;

• Get you better treatment in hospital or prison than is given to local people;

• Pay any bills or give you money (in very exceptional circumstances we may lend you some money, from public funds, which you will have to pay back);

• Make travel arrangements for you, or find you work or accommodation; or

• Make business arrangements on your behalf.

British consular staff can:

• Issue replacement passports;

• Provide information about transferring funds;

• Provide appropriate help if you have suffered rape or serious assault, are a victim of other crime, or are in hospital;

• Help people with mental illness;

• Provide details of local lawyers, interpreters, doctors and funeral directors (see Note 1);

• Do all we properly can to contact you within 24 hours of being told that you have been detained;

• Offer support and help in a range of other cases, such as child abductions, death of relatives overseas, missing people and kidnapping;

• Contact family or friends for you if you want; and

• Make special arrangements in cases of terrorism, civil disturbances or natural disasters.

NOTE 1

Neither the Government nor the relevant British Embassy, High Commission or Consulate can make any guarantee in relation to the professional ability or character of any person or company on the above list, nor can they be held responsible in any way for you relying on any advice you are given.

See the Foreign Office website for full details. <http://www.fco.gov.uk>

COVID-19 Policy

Cancellation

In the case that we have to cancel the event you have signed up to because of an outbreak of COVID-19 in the event destination country we will offer you:

- An adventure credit to the sum of your entry fee (minus the admin fee amount of £100) and 10% off all future adventures booked within 2 years

OR

- A full refund for the entry-fee amount you have paid (minus the admin fee amount of £100).

Postponement

In the case that we postpone the event due to an outbreak of COVID-19 in the event destination country to a time that we consider safe to reschedule to, we will offer you a free transfer to the new dates of the rescheduled event (no admin fee would be applied). If the new event dates are unsuitable for you, we will offer you:

- An adventure credit to the sum of your entry fee (minus the admin fee amount of £100) and 10% off all future adventures booked within 2 years.

OR

- A full refund for the entry-fee amount you have paid (minus the admin fee amount of £100).

Retrospective refund request at point of event cancellation or postponement

If you have pulled out of the event and are issued a refund based on our normal refund policy, and the event is later cancelled or postponed due to an outbreak of COVID-19, you will not be entitled to come back at the point of event cancellation or postponement for a full refund as you will already have ended your contract with us.

Disinclination to travel

We won't refund your entry fee if you have a disinclination to travel due to a perceived threat of COVID-19 and the event is going ahead.

If you are infected with COVID-19

If you need to withdraw from the event because you have contracted COVID-19, a refund will be given at the sole discretion of the company and on presentation of a medical certificate proving infection.

Immunity Certificates or other types of COVID-19 control documents

You may be required to obtain an immunity certificate or some other kind of documentation to prove that you are not actively infected with COVID-19. If you are unable to travel because you do not have the correct documents relating to COVID-19, we will be unable to refund you.

Quarantine, health and security regulations

You may be expected to quarantine for a period of time on arrival in the event destination country. You may also be expected to do the same in your country of residence when returning from your trip. You may need to take this into consideration when planning your schedule to take part in the event. We will not issue a full refund to you if you sign up with the understanding that this, amongst other travel regulations, is a possibility, and then later decide you do not wish to comply with these regulations and so want to withdraw. These regulations are likely to become a part of post-COVID-19 travel for a little while, so please take them into consideration.

Regional lockdowns

If your country of residency's government prevents all travel or your residency/nationality is banned from entry into the event destination country, you can take an adventure credit and receive a 10% discount off all future adventures booked within 2 years. You will not be entitled to a refund of your entry fee as we may not have cancelled or postponed the event in this case. (Not all nationalities and residencies will be under the same travel restrictions at the same time)

Regional entry restrictions

If the country in which the event is taking place introduces regional lockdown zones, we will move the location of the event if we can. If we can't do this because the lockdown zones are so restrictive we are unable to deliver a satisfactory event for you, we may postpone the event and the above rules will apply.

Adventure Credit

Adventure credit lasts 24 months from the date it is issued. You have to use the credit within that time period - that means you have 2 years to book onto your next adventure using your adventure credit.

Adventure Transfer

You can only use the transfer once unless an outbreak of COVID-19 also affects the next adventure you have transferred to.

COVID-19 refund entitlement

If you agree to an adventure transfer or to postponed dates, you are no longer entitled to a refund of your entry fee.

Things might change

We don't have a crystal ball we can peer in to to tell you what might happen next. However, what we do know is that things are changing fast, and we will update our policies as they change where relevant.
